

6. Vocabulary

Match the expressions to the correct definition.

1. to put people at ease -
2. to put people off -
3. to creep people out -
4. to create a [adjective] atmosphere -
5. to judge a book by its cover -
6. to give off a [adjective] vibe -
7. to be drawn to -

- a) to make people lose interest or feel uncomfortable
- b) to make a certain mood or feeling in a place or situation
- c) to form an opinion based only on appearance
- d) to make people feel uneasy or scared
- e) to make someone feel relaxed and comfortable
- f) to feel attracted to or interested in someone or something
- g) to seem to create a certain feeling or impression

7. Practice

Complete the sentences with the correct expression from Activity 6 in the correct form. One of them is not used!

1. If someone interrupts a lot, it can right away.
2. Don't—she's kinder than she looks.
3. A friendly greeting can
4. He confident when he speaks.
5. I'm naturally people who are kind and honest.
6. A joke can relaxed when meeting new people.

8. Practice

Complete the sentences with your own ideas. Then share your sentences with a partner and have a conversation.

1. really puts people off.
2. puts people at ease.
3. creeps people out.
4. creates a atmosphere.
5. I'm naturally drawn to people who are

9. Listening

Video:

You are going to watch a video called “7 Psychological Tricks To Make a Good First Impression”.

The first time you watch the video, write down the 7 tips in the first column of the table below.

Then watch the video again and write down any details you hear in the second column.

Tip	Details
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.

10. Speaking

Post-listening discussion.

1. The video says that it takes just 7 seconds for your brain to form an opinion about someone. Do you think that's enough time? Are our first impressions reliable?
2. Which tip do you personally find the hardest to follow? What makes it challenging?
3. Are there any tips in the video you disagree with or think don't apply in every situation?
4. Do you think people should focus more on being authentic or on following these strategies when meeting someone new?